Hearing, sight, taste, smell, and touch are human senses. We use them every day when we walk, study, eat, or drink. There are animal senses, too. Most animals use them to find food or survive. For example, some birds can see a mouse at a distance of more than 1 kilometre. Mice have very good hearing, and it saves them from such birds.

Insects' senses are often different from ours. Butterflies, for example, taste with their feet. Some animals feel the weather. For example, ants often look for food just before the weather gets bad.
